Gen. March Says They Can Be Discharged Faster Than Pershing Can Send.

GREATER CAMP AT BREST

Rainbow Division May Parade in Washington-O'Ryan's Men to March Here.

Washington, Feb. S .- Gen. March said to-day that demobilization in the United States now was on the "home tretch." Up to yesterday a total of $7,038 officers and 1,033,813 men had seen discharged, while the total ordered or discharge had reached 1,442,000.

The demobilization machinery is now at such a point of efficiency and operation, the Chief of Staff explained, that had been ordered converted and that the first of these were now coming into

Few Divisions Will Parade.

Plans for divisional parades in home sities have been upset by the irregular flow of troops homeward. Gen. March flow of troops homeward. Gen. March said the units were returning in such scattered form that in a great majority of cases it now seemed improbable that divisional organizations could be held together long enough for large parades. The department is dealing with this question, however, as the divisions are ordered home. The Twenty-seventh (New York National Guard) Division will be paraded in New York city and plans for parading the Forty-second (Rainbow) Division on its return in (Reinbow) Division on its return in Washington, Gen. March thought, would be carried out. Wherever opportunity offers for other division parades advantage will be taken of it.
